

PTO 2011-2012 Slate of Officers

Jenny Costantino President

Jenny and husband Tony have two children at STM: Sam, currently in 5th grade and Grace, in 3rd. Jenny was the PTO Executive Board Parliamentarian last year, the Vice President this year, a room parent, and worked on the auction committee. She has been a lunchroom volunteer for six years, helps with the “No Place for Hate” committee, and a whole bunch of other stuff.

Professionally, Jenny has her own consulting firm that specializes in communications, development and management solutions for the arts and entertainment industries.

Jenny and Tony have been active parishioners at STM since 1997.

Doris Coleman Vice President

Doris Coleman has been an active STM parent since 2008. She is completing her third year as a volunteer in the school’s front office, and recently accepted the responsibility for coordinating the STM -School’s Office Volunteer Program. Doris has served on the annual Black History Month Committee, worked on the Read-A-Thon Committee and routinely volunteers to assist with classroom projects. Her husband, David Coleman, is a member of STM’s School’s Advisory Board. They are the proud parents of David Coleman II (3K).

Doris earned a BS in Personnel Administration from Georgia State University and a Masters in Public Administration from Troy State University. She has worked as an economic development professional for local government for over 20years.

The Coleman Family are active parishioners at Our Lady of Lourdes Church in Atlanta, Georgia, where Doris, David and David II facilitate baptism orientation classes.

Dekia Scott Secretary

Dekia and Michael Scott are the proud parents of 8 year old Michael Scott (3B) and 6 year old Zoe Scott. Dekia has been an STM parent since 2009 and served as Co-Chair of the QSP Fundraiser at STM during the 2010 – 2011 school year. She and her family are members of St. Paul of the Cross Catholic Church of Atlanta, Georgia (where Father Jerome McKenna is Pastor).

Professionally, Ms. Scott is the Trust Manager of Southern Company’s Trust Finance group which oversees the corporate pension plan of the parent company and its subsidiaries. Ms Scott has been employed with the Southern Company since November 2000.

Ms. Scott has a BA in Economics from Spelman College and an MBA in Finance from the Goizueta Business School of Emory University. Ms. Scott currently serves on the Board of the Council on Alcohol and Drugs, an affiliate of the Georgia Chamber of Commerce focusing on prevention/intervention of underage drug and alcohol use.

Laura G. Harrison Treasurer

Laura Harrison attended St. Thomas More Church as a child and returned to the parish as an adult when she married Lee eighteen years ago. As a member of the parish community, she has twice served as a sponsor with the OCIA program, was a founding member of the Evergreen couples group, and currently serves as a Reader with the Children's Liturgy team. Within the school, Laura has co-chaired the K/8th Grade Grandparents Brunch, First Communion and both Laura and Lee serve as lunchroom volunteers. Laura and Lee have three children: Katie currently in 6th grade at STM, and twin boys, Matthew and John Henry. John Henry is currently in 2nd Grade at STM and Matthew attends Oak Grove Elementary and is in 1st/2nd Grade Special Ed.

Laura works full time for SunTrust Bank, serves as Cookie Mom for Katie's Girl Scout troop, Team mom for John Henry's baseball team and general coordinator for the Harrison Five household activity calendar. She is looking forward to continuing to serve as Treasurer for the STM school community.

Kate Kennedy Parliamentarian

Kate Kennedy and her husband Robert have 4 children: John Robert-8th grade, Crawford-6th grade, Sam-3rd grade, and Katherine-Claire - a rising STM kindergartener. They attend St Luke's Episcopal Church. So far in her 9 years at STM, Kate has served as PTO President, PTO Vice President, Auction Chair, Parent Involvement Committee Chair, Fund Run Chair, and More Love Hours Chair, as well as lunchroom volunteer and room parent. She is looking forward to keeping peace at the meetings next year as she begins her next 9 years as an STM parent.
