December 7, 2005

MINUTES

Kim Kissell, PTO President, called the meeting to order. Msgr. Paul opened the meeting with a prayer.

The minutes of the meeting from November 17th, 2005 were approved.

TREASURER'S REPORT

Margie Crawford presented the Treasurer's Report, including an update on all fundraisers to date.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Ms. Kissell reported on Catholic Schools week. Catholic Schools Week will take place January 30 through Feb. 3. The Open House is scheduled for Monday January 30th in Mulhern Hall at 7pm. Refreshments will be served at 6:30. Tours of STM will be held on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday mornings. Volunteers are needed for the tours. Please contact Sally Dugan with any questions.

Ms. Kissell presented the activities for Cultural Arts/Black History Month. Ms. Kissell reported that Lonnie Johnson (inventor of the Super Soaker) and featured scientist in the new Middle School Science textbooks, will speak on February 8th for Cultural Arts/Black History month. An African Drummer will perform during the month, and Janet Harrell will provide a daily reading highlighting a significant person in Black History.

The auction committee presented a singing Elvis to encourage everyone to attend the auction on February 25th in the gymnasium.

OLD BUSINESS

Ms. Kissell reported that the upcoming coffee for the Intermediate parents will be held on December 13th.

Ms. Kissell reported on the collection of drink tabs to support the Ronald McDonald House. She thanked Ms. Nicolatos for delivering the tabs for the school.

Ms. Kissell reported on Chick Fil-A Spirit day. The school earns 10% of all sales from Spirit Day. Ms. Kissell announced the sale of Chick-Fil- A calendars. The calendars cost $5.00 and the school will earn $2.50 on every sale.

NEW BUSINESS

No new business

Ms. Kissell thanked the volunteers and teachers for their efforts. She restated the goal of providing our children with the best.

The meeting was adjourned.

The Book Fair Christmas Sing-a-Long Program followed the meeting.

Respectfully submitted,
