23 January 2026

Dear St. Thomas More Catholic School Family,

With gratitude to God and immense joy, the Superintendent of Schools and I write to share important news regarding the leadership of St. Thomas More Catholic School.

After a period of prayerful discernment, reflection, and consultation, we are pleased to announce that Mr. Charlie Seamans, Interim Principal, has been appointed Principal of St. Thomas More Catholic School, effective 23 January 2026.

During the past months serving as Interim Principal, Mr. Seamans has demonstrated steady leadership, deep commitment to our Catholic mission, and genuine care for our students, faculty, staff, and families. His presence has been a source of stability, collaboration, and hope, and it has become clear that Mr. Seamans is well prepared to lead St. Thomas More Catholic School forward with faith and vision.

We are grateful for the openness and support of the school community during this time of transition. We are also grateful to Mr. Seamans' for responding generously to this call to serve, recognizing it as a ministry in service to Christ and His Church.

Please join us in congratulating Mr. Seamans. We ask for your prayers for him as he begins this new chapter. May the Holy Spirit continue to guide our beautiful school, strengthen our school family, and bless the important work that takes place each day in forming the hearts and minds of the children entrusted to our care.

Thank you for your continued commitment to St. Thomas More Catholic School. Please know that you and your families remain in our prayers.

May God bless you abundantly.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Bob Hussey, S.J. Pastor
St. Thomas More Catholic Church

Patricia G. Childs, Superintendent of Schools
Archdiocese of Atlanta
